Reading	Word Reading	Comprehension
	Read aloud and understand the meaning of new words that he/she meets linked to the expectations of Year 6 spelling: https://cdn.oxfordowl.co.uk/2019/08/29/13/54/08/76f1443d-9b6d-4030-be0d-25fcfef01438/SpellingWordList Y3-4.pdf	 Maintain positive attitudes to reading by: Listening to, reading and discuss an increasingly wide range of fiction, poetry, plays and non-fiction Reading books structured in different way e.g. different authors or styles, and for different purposes e.g. for fun or for research Increasing familiarity with a wide range of books, including books from our literary heritage and books from other cultures and traditions. Identifying themes and conventions across a wide range of writing Making comparisons across books Reading a range of poetry and learning longer pieces off by heart Regularly listening to novels read aloud by the teacher from an increasing range of authors, which they may not choose themselves Independently reading longer texts with sustained stamina and interest Recommending books to their peers with detailed reasons for their opinions Participating in discussions about books, building on their own and others' ideas and challenging views courteously
		 Understand what he/she reads by: Summarising the main ideas drawn from more than one paragraph, and identifying key details that support the main ideas. Identifying how language, structure and presentation contribute to meaning. Discussing and evaluating how authors use language, including figurative language, considering the impact on the reader. Explaining and discussing understanding of what he/she has read, including through formal presentations and debates, maintaining a focus on the topic and using notes where necessary. Provide reasoned justifications for his/her views. Using clues to identify the meaning of words in context Predicting what might happen from information stated and implied Using a combination of skimming, scanning and close reading across a text to locate specific detail Retrieving and recording key facts or information Close reading, re-reading and reading ahead to locate clues to support understanding and justifying with evidence from the text Inferring characters' feelings, thoughts and motives from their actions, justifying inferences with evidence e.g. Point + Evidence

Writing: Composition

Teacher Assessment Framework

Non-Negotiables:

- Use full stops and capital letters inc. proper nouns
- Use commas in lists and after fronted adverbials
- Use exclamation marks and questions marks when needed
- Use apostrophes for contraction and possession
- Use paragraphs

Plan:

- Identifying the audience and purpose of the writing, selecting the appropriate form and using other writing as models
- Noting and developing initial ideas, drawing on reading and research where necessary
- Using a simple planning structure
- Structuring narratives through reasoned consideration of how authors develop characters and settings

Write:

- For a range of purposes
- Using simple devices to structure non-fiction pieces e.g. headings/subheadings/bullet points/tables
- Selecting language that shows good awareness of the reader e.g. first person in diary
- In narratives describe characters and settings, and create atmosphere
- Use a range of devices to build cohesion e.g. pronouns/synonyms/adverbials/conjunctions
- Use the range of punctuation taught in KS2 (see appendix 2 of English National Curriculum):
- Select vocabulary and grammatical structures that reflect what the writing requires (e.g. using contracted forms in dialogues in narrative; using passive verbs to affect how information is presented; using modal verbs to suggest degrees of possibility)
- Use informal or formal vocabulary e.g. big/large
- Use informal or formal sentence structure e.g use of subjunctive 'If I were to come...' or contractions 'He's your friend, isn't he?'
- Use varied and rich vocabulary
- Use varied descriptive techniques (verbs, adverbs, adjectives, metaphor, personification, onomatopoeia, simile, symbolism etc.)
- Use a range of sentence structures (see sentence objectives in next table)
- Use a range of punctuation (see punctuation objectives in next table)
- Use dialogue in narratives to convey character and advance action
- Use verb tenses consistently and correctly
- Maintain a joined, legible style

Improve:

- Proposing reasoned changes to grammar, punctuation and vocabulary
- Ensuring correct tense and subject/verb agreement
- Proof read for spelling and punctuation errors
- Evaluate and edit making improvements to grammar and vocabulary

	 Distinguish between the language of speech and writing and choose the appropriate register Write effectively for a range of purposes and audiences, selecting the appropriate form and drawing independently on what they have read as models for their own writing (e.g. literary language, characterisation, structure) Exercise an assured and conscious control over levels of formality, particularly through manipulating grammar and vocabulary Use the range of punctuation taught at key stage 2 correctly, to enhance meaning and avoid ambiguity
