

Dear Parents and Carers,

Monday 28th February 2022

Hello, it's a really exciting busy time this week. We look forward to seeing all the amazing creations this Thursday when everyone can come dressed as their favourite book character, author, poet or even a poem. Every day after school we are holding our Book Fair in the KS1 hall and are delighted to support our local business from Muswell Hill, The Children's Bookshop 3:30pm until 4pm. Please come along for a browse or buy a new book. All children will be given a £1.00 book voucher.

Once again our talented parents are coming into school to read with different classes or share their interesting careers. This brings us all together and really inspires our children. Who knows what these moments will spark for them in the future? If you are interested in volunteering to come in please get in touch. Events coming up during Book Week are:-

This week's collective worship from the Bible is Exodus 34:29-35. In this passage Moses had just received the Ten Commandments. Our school value of Koinonia working together and we remember St David; his last words are thought to have been: "Be joyful, keep the faith and do the little things that you have heard and seen me do." The phrase gwenwch y pethau bychain mewn bywyd - 'Do the little things in life' - is still a well-known phrase in Wales, so don't forget to wear a daffodil on Tuesday.

Have a good week
